A new belt for the mower was purchased along with paint for the shed. The sale of planes came to an additional $257.

Secretary's Report (Rick Christian)

Nothing to report.

Field Report (TBD)

The new runway is holding up well. Some rocks will need to be removed from underneath. Eventually it will need to be rolled.

Safety Report (Chris Pollock):

Dave's Katana met an unfortunate end suffering some kind of radio failure. Be sure to program your failsafes.

Web Report: (John Clauson)

Shed painting pictures are up. John is going to index all the old "front pages".

Old Business: (Jim Larson)

- Be careful mowing along the new runway edge. The club picnic will be on Sunday August 15th.

Official Club Meeting Minutes

- The shed is now painted.

New Business: (Jim Larson)

- The club will make a list of things to do for the field besides mowing the lawn. Picking up sticks and moving them to the burn pile, for example.
- A list of fun mini contests for the picnic will be created.
- The picnic tables will need to be stained soon.
- The next meeting will be at the field on June 28th at 7:00pm.

Good of the Club / Show and Tell: (All)

- Nothing new

The meeting adjourned at 8:32 PM.

Special Note to acknowledge the effort Ralph put in to get the sale of the Don Torgersen estate organized and ready for club members to view.
